First Time Health & Care Worker Visa

OVERVIEW

If you are a qualified healthcare professional who would like to work in the NHS or in adult social care, you can apply for a specific visa to come to the UK. - Bank statements.
- English language test certificate.
- Professional registration information, if applicable.

- You meet the suitability requirements - good immigration history and acceptable criminal record.
- You are a qualified doctor, nurse, health professional or adult social care worker.
- You must hold a valid Certificate of Sponsorship (CoS) for your job, issued by a Home Office-approved sponsor.
- You are applying for your visa within 3 months of getting your CoS.

Health & Care Worker Visa Extension

OVERVIEW

As a health and care worker, you can extend your visa as many times as you like as long as you still meet the requirements. While you will likely be eligible to apply for Indefinite Leave to Remain after 5 years, if your first visa was issued for a shorter period of time than this, you will need to extend it to ensure you continue to be legally resident in the UK.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

- Your passport.
- Evidence of current immigration status, e.g. BRP.
- Your Certificate of Sponsorship reference number.
- English language test certificate.
- Updated criminal record certificate, if applicable.
- Proof of your relationship with your partner or children, if they are applying as dependents.

REQUIREMENTS

- You continue to meet the suitability requirements - good immigration history and acceptable criminal record.
- You are still in the same job and with the same employer as when you were granted your previous work visa.
- You have a new Certificate of Sponsorship covering your extended period of employment.
- Your employer continues to hold a valid UK sponsorship license to employ Health & Care Worker visa holders.
- You still receive an annual salary that meets the minimum salary requirements.
- You are applying no earlier than 60 days before the expiry of your current visa.

REASONS FOR REFUSAL

- Incorrectly completed application form.
- Misunderstanding Home Office guidance.
- Not providing an updated Certificate of Sponsorship.
- Not meeting salary requirements.
- Employer losing sponsorship licence.
- Applying too early or too late.

- You have not spent more than 180 days outside the UK within any year of your qualifying period.
- You have passed the Life in the UK test.
