Visitor Visa

OVERVIEW

A standard visitor visa allows you to come to the UK for up to 6 months to see tourist sites, visit family and friends, and undertake specified business activities. UK immigration is strict even for short-term visas and you need to meet stringent requirements and provide specific evidence.

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED

- Your passport.
- A statement outlining travel and accommodation plans, and an itinerary of activities, with anticipated costs,
- 6 months' of bank statements.
- Evidence of employment, property ownership, etc. in your home country.
- The details of, and a statement from, anyone sponsoring your trip, e.g. relatives you are staying with.

REQUIREMENTS

You will need to meet the suitability requirements, which relate to having a good immigration history and acceptable criminal record.

You will also need to meet the 'genuine visitor requirement' by demonstrating that:

- You intend to leave the UK at the end of your visit;
- You will not keep returning as a visitor and thereby make the UK your home;
- You will not undertake any prohibited activities while in the UK, e.g. taking on a new job for a British company;
- You can afford to pay for all costs related to your trip, including your return journey home.

REASONS FOR REFUSAL

- Incorrectly completed application form
- Misunderstanding Home Office guidance.
- Not providing enough information about your travel and accommodation plans.
- Not demonstrating sufficient ties to your home country.
